

V.i.p. "Burning Fields"

Hurry people, don't miss your bus or you'll be late.
Hurry people, and there's a chance to win it all.
And for heaven's sake,
don't let you be distracted from your course.
So run as fast as you can, don't you turn back your eyes,
But in the end they're complaining
about the ashes which are left.
But no one puts out
The burning fields
Hurry people and keep on sitting in your armchairs.
See what happens on TV and know what's going on.
But for goodness sake,
don't let you miss so important things,
Don't let you be influenced by lying tongues, so don't you understand?
But in the end they're complaining
about the ashes which are left.
But no one puts out the burning fields.
No one puts out
The burning fields
About the ashes which are left,
But no one puts out the burning fields.
No one puts out.
