

Viper

"Living For The Night 528"

Visit "Living For The Night 528" on MotoLyrics.com

Between dusk and day
Before the sunrise
The city will begin to live its crimes
Millions if you ask
It happens everywhere
Every little corner has its tale
Windows are the eyes
That witness without soul
Watching in the silence what is done
I'm a part of this
Violence is my friend
Walking on the line of life and death
Spirits walk the streets
Siren sounds alone
Screaming out the lyrics of my song
I have no other life
Concrete is my cage
All my desillusions turns to rage
I'm living for the night
Though we have to fear it
Where life is just a game

That you have to win

Living for the night

When death surrounds you on and on

All the time it's near

I'm longing to be free

[solo]

He even knows my name

He wants no waste of time

I know that killing is his game

And I am the prize

Our footsteps sound alone

I know he's just behind

I feel the panic in our hearts

Beating very loud

I turn my eyes to him

The night is very dark

He's got a knife and I know

Cause I saw the blade

Between the light and shade

Between the night and day

Between my life and death

I only feel the blade

[solo]

Between dusk and day

Before the sunrise

The city will begin to live its crimes
Millions if you ask
It happens everywhere
Every little corner has its tale
Windows are the eyes
That witness without soul
Watching in the silence what is done
I'm living for the night
Though we have to fear it
Where life is just a game
That you have to win
Living for the night
When death surrounds you on and on
All the time it's near
Living for the night
Though we have to fear it
Where life is just a game
That you have to win
Living for the night
When death surrounds you on and on
All the time it's near

Visit Viper page on MotoLyrics.com, to get more lyrics and videos.