The Woman In White

by Randy Rare

I had a dream
In the blue of the night
I was caught in the scheme
Of the Woman in White
Long ago
The mists of the past
Blackened my soul
It all happened s o fast
Down Cadillac Valley
I copped me a dime
I did it in the alley
To save a lotta time
When I almost died
As I slid to the ground
I heard kind of cry
Like a siren sound
And I remembered
Moments of bliss
The scent of a smile or the color of her kiss
But seeds of sorrow
Lay buried deep within
And I'm never gonna go
Never gonna goin' back there
- Ever again (never never) solo
I woke with a scream
In a stone cold sweat

That can only mean
That I'll never forget
That she got my money
Nearly took my life
It's time to stop running
From the Woman In White
But I remember....
