Dear angel of mine, (Yeah)
Where do I start to express how I feel?
Well, my love's gone blind.
Now all that I feel is what I hear.
Your words rip and tear, and through my heart so weak and pure.
Now I find myself wanting to die

I bleed for the second time tonight
holding the love that's in my mind.
If only my love could be with you.
If only this pain, this pain died too
So I break you away, away, away from me.
So I break you away, away, away from me.

As I sit here alone (ohh)
thinking about everything that you said.
You know since I'm alone.
Well, maybe after all, I was better off dead.
Cause without you my life's gone down...
What do I do, when I find myself wanting to die?

I bleed for the second time tonight
holding the love that's in my mind.
If only my love could be with you.
If only this pain, this pain died too

I bleed for the second time tonight
holding the love that's in my mind.
If only my love could be with you.
If only this pain, this pain died too
I break you away...
This freak I became,
My enemy.
This freak i became,
My enemy.
From my angel to my enemy

And I don't know

Yeah

I bleed for the second time tonight
holding the love that's in my mind.
If only my love could be with you.
If only this pain, this pain died too

I bleed for the second time tonight
holding the love that's in my mind.
If only my love could be with you.
If only this pain, this pain died too

I'll break you away!
(All that's in my mind)
So break you away
(All that's in my mind)
so break you away, away, away from me
So break you away, away, away from me
and I don't know

Sincerely Yours.
