

April Sixth "Foster"

Visit "Foster" on MotoLyrics.com

Verse 1:

To all the rest who have a mother and father
Who have given them a home and a name
Well, check before you walk away like you don't need them
Cause some of us would kill just to have them for a day.
Well, mom and dad I only wish that you could see me
Following the footsteps of the man who started it all.

Chorus:

Cause I'm fine. Living on no bed sheets. Holding on to all that's mine.
Home just hasn't yet arrived.
Said, I'm fine. Living in the back streets. Holding on to
all that's mine.
Home just hasn't yet arrived. For me.

Verse 2:

See there's this boy who has all the answers
But I say that I don't need them.
Cause I can find my happiness, close to my heart
And along the way in a different world, of a different time
Of a different man, you would come into the better years
The best years of your life!

Bridge:

Well, we might meet in a different world, of a different
time.
But, all that matters is that I'm alive. Yea, I'm alive.

Visit April Sixth page on MotoLyrics.com, to get more lyrics and videos.