All rise, face the light!
Fall to your knees, repent please, oh yeah
Down from the mountains the elders came
With a message for man
Fire and brimstone will follow you all
To the ends of the earth
As sure as the stars shine down on you
You must never look back
Abandon all hope ye who enter here
Spoke the man in black
Lead us from temptation
Help us find the way
Show me the direction
That leads to my salvation
Inscribed in blood on the scroll of life
Was the auracle's will
Death and damnation will be your destiny
Purgatory awaits
A thousand curses I invoke on thee
In the name of tonight
A hellish fire will follow you all
Better run for your life
Redeemer save our souls
Redeemer grant us peace
Redeemer save our souls
Redeemer save our souls
