Crashing through door after door
Gets you no further
It seems like the glow from an exodus
Is always one more over and over

Don't hold on to some promise
Made through a cage to keep you
Cold heartbreak
And a challenge, 'cause I've been there

I can't find my shadow
I've got no soul to sell

A break from the sky
Now's your chance
To get yourself over
Don't hold on keep it honest
Tap into the rage that builds you

If I were a leper, would you go?
If I were a leper, would you go?
If I had nothing, left to show
If I were a leper, would you go?

Would you go?

I can't find my shadow
I've got no soul to sell
