Little mama has a baby that she's too young to keep Little mama makes a big decision, it makes her weep
Oh, it makes her weep

A new mama gets a baby, she just can't believe Prayers have been answered and it makes her weep
Oh, it makes her weep

And the child goes from love to love
From wanted to wanted
Don't you know angels sing above
When someone goes from love to love?

Proud mama pins on a rose on a rented tux
Her boy's gettin' married, she can barely look up
Tears runnin' she can barely look up

A proud mama slides a bobby pin in a long white veil
Time to give her little girl away and she tries to smile
Tears runnin' she tries to smile

And the girl goes from love to love
From wanted to wanted
Angels sing above when someone goes from love to love

A long time ago her daddy left behind
His only baby in a little town one night
All the new mom went to see was beauty lyin' in her arms
But the eyes of heaven could see across

And the child went from love to love
From wanted, oh, to wanted
Angels sing above when he went from love to love

'Coz when a child goes from love to love
From wanted to wanted
Angels sing above when he went from love to love
