It'll lead you on, it'll run you off
Hurt twice as long when you're double-crossed
It's hard to trust, this crazy love
It's a breaking heart at the bitter end
Bouncing back just to fall again
It's winning big a loving touch.

Oh, this crazy love
Oh, this crazy love.

It gives and it takes when it's strong
Nothing takes its place when it's gone
First it's good news and then its good-bye
But the good is worth the tears that you cry.

It'll fly you high; it'll shoot you down
Toss you hard in the lost and found
It pays love, this crazy love
It's a game of hearts, jokers wild
Come on look or a tender smile
Raise your hand or call your bluff.

Oh, this crazy love
Oh, this crazy love.

It'll lead you on, it'll run you off
Hurt twice as long when you're double-crossed
It's hard to trust, this crazy love
It's a breaking heart at the bitter end
Bouncing back just to fall again
It's winning big a loving touch.

Oh, this crazy love
Oh, this crazy love
Oh, this crazy love
Oh, this crazy love
Oh, this crazy love
Oh, this crazy love...
