Strange signs, crooked signals
Strike down the last aerials
Heaven's bending below the world begins to break
Life's ending
The time has come to escape
Down to the chambers

Drink this blood and we'll become immortal
Baby this love is breaking the one last bond

We chose the silence, hatred, cruel violence
We should be ashamed we had a chance
That we ignored and now it's too late
The end is knocking on the door
Ready to claim us

Drink this blood and we'll become immortal
Baby this love is breaking the one last bond

Surrender to my love sacrifice your soul
Your picture in the frame is fading like a ghost
Never say goodbye, never be alone
Never say good night, never say die!

Drink this blood and we'll become immortal
Baby this love is breaking the one last

Drink this blood and we'll become immortal
Baby this love is breaking the one last

Immortal love is breaking the one last bond
