My big sister is best of all sisters in the world.
She says enjoying of the life is the main thing.
I agree with her.
She's standing by me when
I've got hard times,
I like about her precense.
Even if I fight with her sometimes it's pretty easy to make friends.

I'm sorry about all, I make apology.
I contess that I was wrong.
You have your reasons to get angry to me,
but if you won't be
I'm asking you to be my friend.

My big sister is the foolest,
dummost girl I've ever seen.
She is so selfish, irritating,
don't you see what I mean.
She is a target of my hate
'n' hate is growing every day.
I will get rid of her 'n' price won't matter,
I will find the way.
