Don't look at me when you're thinkin' of him

Too much deception is burnin' within'

Know what I mean when I say that I care

Don't pretend you know 'cos you weren't even there

Just settle down

Settle down

Before you go to far this time

It's mine

This time

It's in your head

You f***

Just hear what I said

It's gonna be

Just what I say it will because you're mine

This conversation is bringin' me down

Just look at my face as a smile turns to frown

Know in your heart that I mean what i say

Don't come cry to me 'cos you threw it away

Just run away

Run away

Like you always do and hide

Coward

Just hide

It's in your head

You f***

Just hear what I said

It's gonna be

Just what I say it will because you're mine

I've seen the way that you f***in' look at him

Don't you dare try and tell me I'm wrong

What the f*** gives you the right to do this to me

What the f*** did I do to deserve this?

It's in your head

You f***

Just hear what I said

It's gonna be

Just what I say it will because you're mine

It's in your head

You f***

Just hear what I said

It's gonna be

Just what I say it will because you're mine
