Now's the time to choose
Whom you will serve
Don't you let another day go by
Without God on your side

Listen to that voice that's quietly calling your name
Answer and I promise you will never be the same
It's your life we're talking here so have no fear
Don't you think it's time you have peace of mind?

Now's the time to choose
Whom you will serve
Don't you let another day go by
Without God on your side

Now's the time to choose
Whom you will serve
Don't you let another day go by
Without God on your side

Now your eyes won't filled with the tears of loneliness
That's good news, true love and nothing less
You can start anew just give your life to Jesus
He will make you brand new

Now's the time to choose
Whom you will serve
Don't you let another day go by
Without God on your side

Now's the time to choose
Whom you will serve
Don't you let another day go by
Without God on your side
Don't wait, tomorrow might be too late
Why wait, won't you let Him in?
He wants to show you love unconditional

Forever more and you'll know
How much He loves you, yeah, yeah, yeah
You better choose this day
Make a choice right now

Now's the time to choose
Whom you will serve
Don't you let another day go by
Without God on your side

Now's the time to choose
Whom you will serve
Don't you let another day go by
Without God on your side

Now's the time to choose
Whom you will serve
Don't you let another day go by
Without God on your side

Now's the time to choose
Now's the time
Now's the time
Now's the time
