Charlemagne, your swords and your coattails are broken
Prince of Wales these words that you have spoken are token

Oh, let's emerge from the shadows
Oh, let's emerge from the shadows

Socrates, this world of ideas has all faded Solomon, these pages of gold are all jaded

Oh, let's emerge from the shadows
Oh, let's emerge from the shadows

Charlemagne, your swords and your coattails are
broken
token

Oh, let's emerge from the shadows
