So far removed
So in between
So back and forth
Don't know where he's been

And when I stopped and thought about it
When I figured out
When I stopped and thought
Faced an either or

So crazy in my head
In my head, in my head
Over all the things I've read
Things I've read, things I've read

So high above
So up in front
So left and right
So and both

But when I stopped and thought about it
When I figured out
When I stopped and thought
Faced the either or

So crazy in my head
In my head, in my head
Over all the things I've read
Things I've read, things I've read

So far removed
So in between
So back and forth
Don't know where he's been

And when I stopped and thought about it
When I figured out
When I stopped and thought
Faced, either or

So crazy in my head

In my head, in my head
Over all the things I've read
Things I've read, things I've read
