As night was falling down
His horse so swiftly flew
The wind, it beat him down
His outcried words they blew

He cried Myron
Where are you hiding?
He cried Myron
Where are you hiding?

Rain, it beat him down
The tears from Heaven fell
He had to wonder why
All he did was cry

He cried Myron
Where are you hiding?
He cried Myron
Where are you hiding?

Went looking for the truth
Went looking for his mom
Went looking for his dad
Went looking for himself

On and on and on
He cried Myron
Where are you hiding?
He cried Myron
Where are you hiding?
