Well, you don't think that I love you
But you want me to be true
Everywhere I go and everyone I know
Tells me you found someone new
Baby, that's all right
Well, that's all right
Baby, that's all right
Anyway you wanna do..

I gave you love from heaven
And I let you have your way
It didn't matter to me then
It doesn't matter to me today
Baby, that's all right
Well, that's all right
Baby, that's all right
Anyway you wanna do..

Well, that's all right when you say you love me
That's all right with me
And that's all right when you're thinkin' of me
That's all right with me
Well, that's all right when your love grows old
And that's all right when you leave me cold
That's all right with me
It's all right when you leave
Baby, that's all right
