Jeff)

Whats all my nigga's is getting rich by breaking the law.

Going through banded walls.

Soothing the pain up with alcohol.

Living the criminal tradition of organized crime and cooking mines playing with nickles and dimes.

And then millions civilians is still snitching.

Dangerous for legal living that is caused by the amunition.

Uncle sam is mad win again.

Everytime we get locked up we feel somebody's throwing the coffins it's the law enforcement couldn't tax us so they harass us trying to fight back and call for backup don't even act up or snatched up by the law I got my eyes on the golden door rocking all primature
