It's easier to laugh when she's around
You've waited for her love too long
You whisper her name, againnn
You want to be loved and belong to her

What could i know, you are gone.
What can i do, haunt you down.
What should i hope, such an empty world.
What will i do, know im all alone, i am all alone.

Bring out the waterfalls and take your time
Just loose your temper, a crime is a crime
And be sure, you'll die tonight.
Bring out the waterfalls, bring out the waterfalls

It's easier to sleep when she's around
You've waited for her love too long
You whisper her name again
But you want to be loved
Now you are all alone, you are all alone

Bring out the waterfalls and take your time
Just loose your temper a crime is a crime
And be sure, you'll die tonight
Bring out the waterfalls and take your time
Just loose your temper a crime is a crime
And be sure, you'll die tonight

And why did i care for you 2x

Bring out the waterfalls and take your time
Just loose your temper a crime is a crime
And be sure, you'll die tonight
Bring out the waterfalls until we die
Now is the time
And be sure, you'll die tonight
