Odame - Bad Dream

I ripped off the real me
It's not deep inside we said goodbye
I ripped off the real me
It had to go
I said goodbye to all the alibis
And the things I'd hide
I finally let them go
The things I thought I knew
All came crashing down
Before my eyes
And I think I might feel something different
Be some one different now
I fell apart
Just like you said I would
Over and over again
I fixed myself
And now it seems I'm slipping away
Further and further away
It never came to this
She never broke my heart
We never pass away
And living life is just a bad dream anyway
Pain blocked the real me
Starts to fade and rolling me over
As I start to drink the most beautiful shade of nothing
I've ever seen
I made my ing decision lord take me away
It's just a bad dream anyway
