Odame - Honesty

Take a drink wipe your eyes Realize what I'm living with My heads on fire and it's so cold
In the cavity behind my ribs
So I filled it up with worthless things
And the memory that I've loved and failed
To keep the ideals of a broken heart
Wile life chips away a truth a day
So send your heart away
Forget everything you've seen
And the days that brought you crashing down with tears
from somewhere you don't know Cause it's all a lie the pain we fell is just imperfections in our heads distracting us from what is real
So take my hand hold my hand it's so cold it's all a lie
Hold my hand hold my hand it's so cold it's all a lie
It's all a lie
It's all a lie
It's all a lie
It's all a lie
