"Fire Below"

Lead us not into temptation as we grow in fear

Free your mind from all frustrations as they're drawing near

Take your time, live in sin, choose your alibis

Work all day, die in pain, you're a sacrifice

They're gonna send you down to hell

And put your body on a shelf

This is the island of damnation,

Where all your dreams are gonna fall

Your mind is screaming for salvation

And then your world is gonna blow

Down in the fire below

Below

Silent tears are running down my face into the night

As I'm getting closer to my heart that's full of fright

They lead me down a steep hell spire

And burn my body in the fire

This is the island of damnation,

Where all your dreams are gonna fall

My mind is screaming for salvation

My heart is torn apart and thrown

Into the fire below

Below

They're gonna send you down to hell

And put your body on a shelf

This is the island of damnation,

Where all your dreams are gonna fall

My mind is screaming for salvation

My heart is torn apart and thrown

Into the fire below

The fire below

Go down, to nowhere, go down, down

They take you to Hell

Into the fire

They're taking you down

Into the fire

The fire below
