Now... that all seems so quiet and we all have survived but after all still we fear
the hand of fate... tonight Men on the mountain from hell you came to destroy the realm of our freedom endangered to fade in the void Now they are back on the earth taking their wrath to our land an ocean full of darkness awaits we will resist, fight until the end And down below the dark lord awaits to fight our souls with hate our hearts with rage 10.000 dreams for glory rise now they are awaiting
the hand of fate tonight
So we have gathered here beyond the endless skies and we are marching on and on forver more for the dark lord - he must fall Out on the edge of the world the wasted years are coming to an end the oceans of evil shall fade master of doom - we're taking it back again Deep in our hearts we hear the call of the wild spirits of yesterday will fly away

now they are awaiting
now they are awaiting
now they we're awaiting
