I'm riding the wind, don't need your request

You'd never invite me but I will be your guest

Oh no, no don't be afraid of the reaper

It's time to go I call your name and you follow

Fly with me

Take a look around and say you love me

And I will guide you through the golden door

For everything you'll see there is a reason

The big wheel is turning like always before

There is no return from the other side of heaven

For the big wheel turns and the circle must go on forever more

How do you like your termination day? So far -

Kiss me good bye, cause I must fade away

Oh no, no don't be afraid of your master

It's time to go it's calling your name now you follow

Fly away

Take a look around and say you love me

And I will guide you through the golden door

For everything you'll see there is a reason

The big wheel is turning like always before

There is no return from the other side of heaven

For the big wheel turns and the circle must go on

forever more

Welcome to eternal life, my friend

Now take your seat on your cloud

Enjoy your stay

But always remember...

There is no return

There is no return from the other side of heaven

For the big wheel turns and the circle must go on

forever more

There is no return from the other side of heaven

For the big wheel turns and the circle must go on

forever more
