ONE WITH THE WORLD

Music: Hansen, Wessel/Lyrics: Hansen

Do you think there's a chance

For this world to live in unity as one?

I can try to believe

But I feel it's like a view into the sun.

Blinded by the light everything will look so fine

But still I feel the rays are burning my soul.

So you say you believe

We can change the world together if we try.

I know we won't change.

When it comes to the point

Do you think we reach an aim that is too high?

I know we don't arrange.

But I know we're all the same

When the final curtain falls

And the Sighs on the way

Are leading us home

When I'm one with the world

I am one with my mind

Forget all the fury there's no need to cry

There's a place we all go, salvation to find

There's freedom to come

When I'm one with the world and my mind.

Do you feel, do you know?

There's an answer to the question when you're gone.

You're not alone.

You will see, we will see

Is there nothing or a better place to go?

We can't go wrong.

There are echoes in the wind

And they say don't be afraid

'cos the Sighs on the way

Are leading us home

When I'm one with the world

I am one with my mind

Forget all the fury there's no need to cry

There's a place we all go, salvation to find

There's freedom to come

When I'm one with the world and my mind.

One with the world

One with the world

One with the world

I am one!

One with the world

One with my mind

One with my heart
