So now we talk about destruction a human race that's left to die nobody ever will believe it until we face it eye to eye Let us talk about hell Our future shines in darkest colours you'll never change it, never will ain't nothing left now to believe in and so we face the overkill Hey mother mercy leave me be do you expect me now to cry Time will wait for noone Time is short as hell time, time, time is short as hell All is lost, into the underworld we fade until our live is gone count the cost then from the darkness whiped away into the underworld we fade Where the darkness awaits
Time will wait for noone

Time is short as hell, hell, hell
