When you're drowning, when you're freezin', when you're feeling cold

There's a light in the darkness as the elder always told.

When the winter's coming closer and the autumn's passing by,

Then the world will sink in silence and I think we all should try.

Oh, I wanna live my life in a fairy tale

Where the end is always good and never sad.

Show me the way to another world

Where the sun is always shining in the and

And we fight back the tears, and we lose our fears,

Let the world remain in silence for a while

Sun in our minds in a world full of ice,

Let silence remain for a little while.

Somebody came and slammed the door,

took the feelin' away from our hearts.

And the horror took hold of a place in our hearts filled with love.

What is left behind the ice, behind the make up and the lies

Tell me what goes on inside our mindss,

There is a hole in our sky, getting bigger, growing wide

No more answer, but we hold the line - uh, yeah - See and hear what we have done to us all, we wanna be free more than anything,
Do you hear what I say to you?
We will make it through, the sun shall shine.
Hear the words we say and see the light of day
We never will be free until the sun is shining for us all Carry on, carry on and make our dreams come true
And for a little while we stay together
Carry on, carry on, may all our lovin' stay
And for a little while we stay together, forever
Together, forever
