"THE SILENCE"

When you're drowning, when you're freezin', when you're feeling cold

There's a light in the darkness

As the elder always told

When the winter's coming closer

And the autumn is passing by

Then the world will sink in silence

And I think

We all should try

Oh...

I wanna live my life in a fairy tale

Where the end is always good and never sad

Come Show...

Me the way to another world

Where the sun is always shining in the end

And we fight back the tears

And we lose our fears

Let the world remain in silence for a while (babababa...lalalala...)

Sun in our minds in a world full of ice

Let the silence remain for a little while

Somebody came and slammed the door

Took the feelin' away from our hearts

And the horror took hold of a place in our hearts filled with love

What is left behind the ice, behind the make up and the lies?

Tell me what goes on inside our minds.

There is a hole in our sky, getting bigger, growing wide

No more answer but we hold the line

Ooh yeah!

See and hear what we have done to us all

We wanna be free...more than anything

Do you hear what I say to you?

We will make it through

The sun...shall shine

Hear the words we say and see the light of day

We never will be free until the sun is shining for us all...

Carry on, carry on...

And make your dreams come true

And for a little while we stay together

Carry on...carry on

May all your lovin' stay

And for a little while we stay together...

Forever...together...

Forever...together...

Forever...Together...

Forever
