I'm watching the mountains I'm watching the sea
Observing the creatures I am lost - set me free
Across the heavens I made my way
I've seen empires rise and blown away
I have arrived at my destiny but after all there's just emptiness in me
Out in the darkness - I am going mad
Where are the others - there's silence in my head
'Cause I'm a watcher in the sky
I've seen universes die
Out in the cold my systems overload
I am lost in time
Watcher in the sky
I'm trapped in this nightmare
Endless tortures and pain, milleniums have gone by Uhhh, it drives me insane
Who am I now?
I'm not man - I'm not machine
I gave my life away for the Iron Savior dream
'Cause I'm a watcher in the sky
I've seen universes die

Out in the cold my systems overload

I am lost in time

Watcher in the sky

(Piet) Hooked to the circuits of a lifeless, cold machine

Lost in a world of artificial means

Ripped out of my body

I'll stand the test of time

Am I perpetual? - am I devine?

I'm a watcher in the sky

My soul has drowned in the tears I cannot cry

I'm the watcher the chosen one but I am lost in time

I'm a watcher in the sky I've seen the years go by

I am the chosen one

Out in the cold my systems overload and I am lost in time

Watcher in the sky

Watching the mountains, watching the sea, watching the creatures

You'll never be free

Watcher in the sky
