Call you on the telephone supposing that your not alone baby talking all around saying that you can't be found you say your never really satisfied it's not enough it's never enough [x2]

tell the truth, to find another lover [x2] finding it hard, finding it harder [x2] the room is kinda dark at night used to have you by my side seems the more I gave to you kept us from being true

never enough [x2]

tell the truth, to find another lover finding it hard, finding it harder
