

Oedipus Complex, The "Oceans"

Visit "Oceans" on MotoLyrics.com

The voices in my head
Getting too loud to bear anymore
Oceans don't need luck
All they want is to

Consume
Throw me into the depths
The seas pull me under
Cold embrace
The only thing I truly desired
Was to shun them all away

Don't keep me around
I have grown too attached to routines
Take a lesson from the oceans
They don't need such memories

Consume
Throw me into the depths
The seas pull me under
Cold embrace
The only thing I truly desired
Was to shun them all away

Break slowly and fearlessly

Consume
Throw me into the depths
The seas pull me under
Cold embrace
The only thing I truly desired
Was to shun them all away
