Of Flight & Failure - Brave New World

I will hang my head to mourn your death my friend.
Do you know what it's like to find a friend, only to have to destroy them?
I do, but I chose this path to be your savior.
I would give all I have to bring you back but I can't.
I chose this path, the path of the righteous man, a sign of hope.
I am alone, but not afraid.
I can't see you but I still feel you here.
I am alone but I believe,
the pain inside me will slowly disappear.
I am alone, but not afraid.
I can't find you, I hope that you are near.
I am alone, but I believe.
I'll look to the sky cause I'm not afraid.
And now my only regret is that it's over.
This hurts so much more than I imagined.
The cure for all of this pain left undiscovered.
Our hearts can't take much more of this, why would we
let them?
I've seen the future and it could be bright,
As long as we all stand for what we know is right.
We lost our way.
When will we find our way back from here?
Get on your feet and save the day!
It's time to save humanity!
GET ON YOUR FEET.
And now my only regret is that it's over.
This hurts so much more than I imagined.
The cure for all of this pain left undiscovered.
Our hearts can't take much more of this, why would we
let them?
We lost our way... we're finding it hard just to be.
When we find our way back from here?
