"Pretty Face"

It's said a pretty girl has just come to town ah, ah, ah
The boys are wandering around trying to see her face, ah, ah, ah

Is this true ?, my anxious boy, or may be it's just a lie We'll have to wait for a while and see if we happen to meet

There she was down the street wearing a blue sleeveless shirt and short skirt Her pretty face and slim figure almost made me lose consciousness

I thought at first she looked at me but then I realised When I turned around her boyfriend was standing and glaring at me

(solo)

She was an untouchable girl, what have I done to deserve this ?

I'll come back home again and switch on the T.V., ah, ah, ah
I'll be so bored once more on the sofa lying alone

This is unfair, don't you think so ?
The first time I was in love
She was an untouchable girl, what have I done to deserve this ?
