"Bullshit"

See you wave your flags with other stupid trash Screaming out frustration Say they took your jobs and they are the reason for your sad, sad situation point your finger try to put the blame instead of searching for solutions Intolerance has blocked your common sense and keeps you raving in confusion

What kind of world are you longing for?
always stir up hatred are you that frustrated Could it be that you're insecure Why don't you just admit it you are just plain stupid
We don't take your bullshit anymore

We don't take your bullshit anymore
