I see your face at night
through darkest hour
I close my eyes, so hard
My lids start livin
You grasp my head well tight
I try to get loose
You break me down, far down
Floored and forever blinded

Trying to get back up
Entangled I am violantly forced back
Haunted and torn apart

In a mans last minutes
In a mans last breath
Theres always suffering, no mather what Theres always reckoning

Yaaaaaa! Remembering the past
Thinking bout the past
Regretting anything
Awakening life once lost

Dont spend the days of yours
Wasting precious time
Life once Lost
Theres no return
