It may be karma
Comes back and bite me in the ass

Something, anything, this constant emotions uncertainty
Maybe I am worth to good to realize
We can no longer ignore all the corruption and suffering
In this upside-down thing, life, the earth

We can no longer ignore the facts given
It will be destroyed
To beware of everything

Bliss is here and the peace will mould
Its time to feel the sweet taste of shanty

It may be karma
Comes back and bite me in the ass

Its time to make it happen
Its time to make it right
What we need is awareness
To turn things right
We all seek our path, yes there are many way
To be aware, ignore everything

Bliss is here and the peace will mould
Its time to feel the sweet taste of shanty

What we need is awareness
To turn things right
These individuals
Shanty suzerainty
These individuals
Sweet taste of shanty
