I will fight till the end comes
Till were both engulfed in flames
You will burn for what you did
There's no hiding now
The more that you will run from me's
The more that I will hurt - you

Tell me that I'm taking this too far
Tell me you think I'm losing my mind
Cause by now I think you're a fucking bitch well it's easy to see if you try

I say, you are, nothing more than just a fake and spoiled
Piece of shit

When I'll catch you
Oh you'll be alone
Yes you'll be alone

Hope you're ready to - fall

You're a victim for my malice
Cease your lies and games
Cause now you're alone

Don't hide through words of innocence
Dive to depths unknown
For I will find you anyway

Tell me that I'm taking this too far
Tell me you think I'm losing my mind
Cause by now I think that you're a fucking bitch, you know?
Oh, and it's easy to see if you try.
Yeah.

I, I will destroy you
I, I will destroy you
