Hey you're a riddle,
I say as I move aside
(like I really need your advice).
But you won't leave it alone
Little men try but don't get a lot done.
Living in sin doesn't move me either way.
I get a feeling you're so vague.
Like I said before,
Little men come when anything goes.

When the rain comes I sit home and pray
Make it all numb - I wish it all away.
All I really need is just somewhere to hide away.

Kick him when he's down
Here alone I'll put up and fight.
Kick him when he's down
Beat me all the way I'll take it all night.
Kick him when he's down
Hey don't worry, I'll get along home alright.

Hey, everybody's supposed to be the same.
So how come they're so lame?
It's like taking a fall, keep on running back into that wall.
Awake in a dream, get up and go to work,
But I'm feeling like such a jerk.
Like I said before, little men come when everything goes
