My girlfriend, My dumb donut
Went out to a party just the other night
But three hours later, and seven shots of Jager
She was in the bedroom with another guy

And I don't really wanna know
So don't tell me anymore
And I really don't wanna hear
About her feet all up in the air

And well I'm not the one who acted like a ho
Why must I be the one who has to know
I'm not the one who messed up big time
So spare me the details if you don't mind

Now I can understand, friends who want to tell me
Think they're gonna help me open up my eyes
But the play by play makes me wanna lose it
Every time you do it man it turns the knife

And I don't really wanna know
So don't tell me anymore
And I really don't wanna hear
About her feet all up in the air

And well I'm not the one who acted like a ho
Why must I be the one who has to know
I'm not the one who messed up big time
So spare me the details if you don't mind

Now I don't need to hear
About the sounds they were makin'
And I don't need to hear About how long it was takin', or how the walls they were shakin'

Now I'm lyin' in bed, wallowing in sorrow
Missing the tomorrow that we could have had Running through my head, over and over
Things I never told her now just make me sad
And it drives me insane, sittin' with the vision

Stuck with that image burned into my brain
And I feel so dumb, that I could ever trust her While someone else fucked her, then he walked away!

And I don't really wanna know
So don't tell me anymore
And I really don't wanna hear
About her feet all up in the air

And so I'm not the one who acted like a Ho
Why must I be the one who has to know
I'm not the one who messed up big time
So spare me the details if you don't mind

(Cause I don't wanna know)
(don't wanna know) Spare me the details if you dont
mind
(don't wanna know)
(don't wanna know) Spare me the details if you dont
mind
