Salty river, falls asleep in the bay
Always gets there, never early, never late
Nothing's happening
Nothing's happening by the sea
White waves tumbledown
And gently roll back into blue
On wooden seats outside the bar
The couples make their rendez-vous
Nothing's happening
Nothing's happening by the sea
The trouble has been found
There's too far ups, and too many downs
I've found a level that feels just right
There's no mistaking where I'm going tonite
To nothing's happening
Nothing's happening by the sea
