She brought me flowers and then she'd say

Don't give me emotion cause I'll throw it away

She brought me flowers I heard her say

Don't give me emotion cause I'll thwow I'll thow it away

Throwing it away

She's got the power to make me stay

I don't know if I like it but I just can't run away

She's got the power to make me stay I don't know if I like it

But I just can't, just can't run away

Just can't run away

And what I've learned- learned from this is- is that a kiss is just a kiss

And what I've learned- learned from her

Is that to love you gotta be who you are No

You can't just turn- turn away from who you are what you wanted to be

You gotta learn- learn to see that it' not enough-enough for me

I want it all I want it all right or wrong right or wrong I want it all I want it all

She brought me flowers just to say

She'd packed her bags she's leaving she's on her way

She brought me flowers and that's ok

Cause somethings last forever and somethings fade away
