Oh Romeo - These Memories

Ooooooooooooooh

Ooooooooooooooh

You were my first love
And you'll probably be my last
I'm still hunted by these memories
About love in the past
I'm just trying hard to make it without you, (making without you)
If you'd only knew what I was going through

These memories
These memories hunting me
These memories
These memories hunting me

Ooooooooooooooh

Ooooooooooooooh

So each time I go to sleep
In a lonely empty bed
Now I really have to wonder
Do you love me now instead?
I'm just trying hard to make it without you, (making without you)
If you'd only knew what I was going through

These memories
These memories hunting me
These memories
These memories hunting me

Why can't I forget the memory of you?
What do I let myself go through, what I go through?
What is my place of happiness in your hands?
Living without you...
Is more than I can stand
Is more than I can stand

These memories, these memories hunting me
These memories, these memories hunting me
These memories, these memories hunting me...

Why can't I forget the memory of you?
What do I let myself go through, what I go through?
What is place of my happiness in your hands?
Living without you...
Is more than I can stand
Is more than I can stand

These memories, these memories hunting me
These memories, these memories hunting me
These memories, these memories hunting me
These memories, these memories hunting me
These memories, these memories...
