"Alpha & Omega"

In a very distant time
I was made of flesh and blood
I was feeling puissant
So strong and so brave

There was nothing I could fear
My years were passing by
And the silent dust of time
Alights on me

I did not realize
How short our lives are
Into dark we jump
Once angels call our names

Distant faces of a rolling dice
Parts of the same game we leave far behind
Stop your trudging, making questions now
You'll get the answers when alpha & omega combine

Let your senses fall
Don't fear your growing haze
Listen to my secret words
And try to understand

All the spirits you can sense
They come to give you a sign
All united here we are
To warm you now

We were what you are
You are what we were
You are what they'll be
Still angels call your name

Distant faces of a rolling dice
Parts of the same game we leave far behind
Stop your trudging, making questions now
You'll get the answers when alpha & omega combine

Distant faces of a rolling dice

Parts of the same game we leave far behind
Stop your trudging, making questions now
You'll get the answers when alpha & omega combine
