You man, tell me why you are so dour
Won't you smile at me?
Look at where you're fallen, look at what you are

Listen, I have come with a mission
To remind you
There has been a time when you were not like this

Close your eyes
Close your eyes and remember
'cause I came from the past
I'm a painting that shows what you've been
Years have gone by
Lost in your mind
Turn at the mirror and see with the eyes
With the eyes of a child

You man through my eyes you can go back
To your childhood
When the colors of your future were so bright

I see you forgot all the passion
You're so distant
From the child you were before the twilight came

Close your eyes
Close your eyes and remember
'cause I came from the past
I'm a painting that shows what you've been
Years have gone by
Lost in your mind
Turn at the mirror and see with the eyes
With the eyes of a child

Hey man, you're so old
Can't you see that?
In your soul now
All your fields of passions have become so bright

Close your eyes
Close your eyes and remember
'cause I came from the past

I'm a painting that shows what you've been
Years have gone by
Lost in your mind
Turn at the mirror and see with the eyes
With the eyes of a child
(Close your eyes)
(Close your eyes)
Whoa! Child!!!
With the eyes of a child
