Arms were rivers, through sinuous hills,
"woe"
Winds wore shivers and longing for thrills
"woe"

-----
Veil the night wakeful stars blow dread astray.

Shake the dawn, aweless dare throw along youngest stare Arms reclaim stars unnamed.

Morning light reunites

fallen flames
a flawless frame
Through ember eyes

Over night, hearts arise
All the same
a solace shame
through,

Veil the night,
Veil the night, wakeful stars Reunite, arms reclaim fallen flames.
