I always said that'd be it
That I wouldn't stick around
If it ever came to this
And here I am, so confused
How am I supposed to leave
When I can't even move
In the time it would have took to say
"Honey, I'm home, how was your day?"
You dropped a bomb right where we live
And just expect me to. . .

Chorus

Forgive. . . well that's a mighty big word
For such a small man
And I'm not sure I can
'Cause I don't even know now who I am
It's too soon for me to say forgive

I should ask, but I won't
Was it love or just her touch
'Cause I don't think I want to know
So get you some things
And get out
Don't call me for a day or two
So I can sort this out
Well, you might as well have ripped the life
Right out of me, right here tonight
When through the fallin' tears you said,
"Can you ever just forgive."

Chorus

Forgive. . . well that's a mighty big word
For such a small man
And I'm not sure I can
'Cause I don't even know now who I am
It's too soon for me to say forgive

You know what they say
Forgive and forget
Relive and regret

Chorus

Forgive. . . well that's a mighty big word

For such a small man

And I'm not sure I can

'Cause I don't even know now who I am

It's too soon for me to say forgive
