rebirth, what the fuck did you think you would see a burnt out complexion staring at me rebirth of tragedy you've been tripping, I've been growing deeper inside i feel like this in me I've lived it, I've been it, the addict you've become so what you got for me
scraping the plate
I always knew you'd come, I always knew you'd fall on down collision of the blue lights the drag deeper comes the ring in my eyes I think I'm seeping out of my skin you know it's all a part of my head came down, you came down

the mouths move with no voices I smeared your face again my face against the wall I've been coming far too close
scraping the plate
I always knew you'd fall.. down
