Misery can't stop the pain I feel inside
Empty, my soul yearns for something I just can't find
Gathering sights within my mind
Contemplating thoughts I left behind
Wondering, wondering why I am alive

Beckoning, raising my arms, hear my cry
Pity me, pity me not, I will survive
Gathering sights within my mind
Contemplating thoughts I left behind
Reality torturing my soul I don't know why

Whispering voices talking inside my head
Calling me, taunting me, wishing I were dead
Gotta get them out, cast the voices out
Terminate the sounds, exterminate disturbing sound out
Gripping on the life, taking on the reality
Holding on with might, relying on my sanity

Sanity, searching for my mind blackened with hate
Justify shadowing colors, sound that cry
Gathering sights within my mind
Contemplating thoughts I left behind
Wondering, wondering why I am alive

Immersing in thought, tranquil in silence
Underlying secrets, locked in time
Truth to existence lies within myself
Motionless in wonder, taking in all that's clear

Be gone, fade away, can't blind my eyes
Be gone, fade away, I know the truth
Be gone, fade away, can't blind my eyes
Searching for meaning deep inside
Mindless journeys, forever ride

Be gone, fade away, can't blind my eyes
Be gone, fade away, I know the truth
Searching for meaning deep inside
Mindless journeys, forever ride

Misery can't stop the pain I feel inside
Empty, my soul yearns for something I just can't find
Gathering sights within my mind
Contemplating thoughts I left behind
Wondering, wondering why I am alive

Beckoning, raising my arms, hear my cry
Pity me, pity me not, I will survive
Gathering sights within my mind
Contemplating thoughts I left behind
Reality torturing my soul I don't know why

Prisms of colors, I don't understand
Floating in patterns, the skies of clad
Envisioned in my thoughts together as I stand
Motionless in wonder taking all that's clear

Be gone, fade away, can't blind my eyes
Be gone, fade away, I know the truth
Be gone fade away, can't blind my eyes
Searching for meaning deep inside
Mindless journeys, forever ride

Be gone, fade away, can't blind my eyes
Be gone, fade away, I know the truth
Searching for meaning deep inside
Mindless journeys, forever ride
