Welcome to my dwellings of unholiness Upheld, the blackest dreams... O' infernal bliss Tabernacles pleased and continuance lies in The innocents existence

Come!
Mighty Babalon, mother of Abominations
Grant me the flesh, grant me the fear Grant me sanctity in ruin

Down through the bowels of unholiness Upheld, the blackest deeds... O' infernal bliss I am he who is malevolence, raping the weary so diminished

The Realization:
"A sanctity in blasphemous ruin; a perversity enamored divine.
Hallowed is my name, my crown of desires pierces the heavens.

Lucifer! Coalesce and feed, may the angles of the first become the substance of the third. This is my covenant, my legacy... for the one true god I hail to is me."

Wrought in blood, writhing in your degradation Gods? Saviors? Icons of humility

FEAR - FLESH - FATE

Thus spake Zarathustra:
Defoliate the translucent skin, once bethlehem, and serve amongst the fallen as a temple of utter carnality
I am hunger, my will to power
