Ohh
Ooohhh.....

I believe in you this is real for me what I feel for you
Didn't come so naturally at first I was afraid
Couldn't fight the fight couldn't keep the light on
With any other love, oh love, oh love

Now I'm ready for the world no matter what it brings
I can feel all my dreams coming true
As long as you're loving me
As long as you're loving me

I can move mountains, I can part seas
My heart will be open for eternity
As long as you're loving me
Yeah, yeah

This is what feels good this is what feels right
From the moment I wake up until we say
Goodnight and I'm stronger than I was
I've reached down and I've touched
It's easier to lie down with you on my side
On my side

Now I'm ready for the world no matter how it spins
Cause I'll always be in it with you
As long as you're loving me
As long as your loving me (as long as your loving me)

I can move mountains, I can part seas
My heart will be open for eternity
As long as you're loving me
Ohh, as long as you're loving me

Now I'm ready for the world now matter what it brings
I can feel all my dreams coming true
As long as you're loving me
As long as you're loving me

I know where I'm going
Where I belong

I'll be forever safe in your arms
As long as you're loving me,ohhh
As long as you're loving me,mmmm
As long as you're loving me,yeah
As long as your loving me
